

Cherokee County, Iowa, is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Engineering Technician: Construction

Successful candidate shall; lead construction inspection to ensure compliance with specifications and prepare documentation to submit to Iowa DOT, monitor the progress of outside contractors, oversee contract administration, and ensure proper project close out. The Construction Technician shall manage the bridge inspection program, manage the County's traveler information system, and coordinate the communication of construction and maintenance activities, and issue oversize and overweight trip permits.

Successful candidate must possess transportation construction project knowledge and ability to work independently.

Salary is negotiable depending upon experience and qualifications.

Applications may be found at www.cherokeecountyiowa.com, and must be submitted with cover letter and resume by Friday, September 13th. Cherokee County is an EOE.

Email application materials to Sarah Tracy, Cherokee County Engineer, @ stracy@co.cherokee.ia.us

*Email file limitations: No greater than 10MB per file attachment and not to exceed 25 MB total

Any questions, please contact Sarah Tracy directly via the email above or by phone @ 712.229.8041.